

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1892.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, MARCH 28, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

IT'S UP TO YOU, MY SON.

There are two little traits in life, my boy:
One leads to heights of fame,
To honor, glory, peace and joy,
And one to depths of shame;
And you can reach that glorious height
In honors can be won—
Or you can grope in shame's dark night—
It's up to you, my son.

One trail is strewn with labor's flowers,
With sharp thorns here and there;
One leads through wicked pleasure bowers
That to the eye are fair,
One trail ascends, and day by day
You climb—you cannot run—
And one is down hill all the way—
It's up to you, my son.

Stern duty guards the upper trail,
Exacts obedience, too,
And he who treads it cannot fall
To win, if he be true;
But tickle folly, gay with smiles,
Rules o'er the other one,
And leads to ruin with her wiles—
It's up to you, my son.

Avoid of one long trail you'll find
That all the tears and moans
And pining eyes you left behind
Were needed stepping stones,
And at the other end you'll see
Your pleasures, one by one,
But led you on to misery—
It's up to you, my son.

At partings of the trails you stand,
At early manhood's gate—
Your future lies in your own hand—
Will it be low or great?
Now you choose the trail of light
When you the height have won,
You'll look in honor's fearless light—
It's up to you, my son.

Buy a home—do it now. JOHN DULEY.

Wanted—Three good girls at the Hotel Laundry. Apply at once.

Some enterprising citizen should build some nice cottages to rent at about $10 per month. They will find eager renters. John Duley has lots for sale.

My display of pattern hats is unexcelled for original designs and correct styles, and cordially invite an inspection of all the ladies Thursday, March 30th, 1905. Mrs. O. B. Stritt.

Colonel George W. Wood made his first trip in the county as the representative of the Deering Harvester Company. George is a high-toned gentleman and a bustling salesman.

A new line of Gold Crosses and Bead Neck Chains just received. They are the very latest. We have marked them at prices bound to make them popular.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

A big cocking main is said to have been pulled off near Mayslick a few nights ago, in which considerable money changed hands. There were cocks from Connersville, Ind., Newport and other places. If reports are true home folks got the hot end of the poker—Connersville winning the most fights.

Saturday a slick individual snipped a fine gold watch belonging to Mr. Edward Grover, bookkeeper at the wholesale grocery house of Omar Dodson in Second street. There have been several mysterious transactions of a somewhat similar character hereabouts in the past several weeks that have not been ferreted out and driven home. What's the matter with the sleuths of the Police force? Have their lamps gone glimmering, or has the Woggle Bug knocked them into an innocuous desirous state?

LEWIS HOLLIDAY.

Lewis Holliday, aged 75 years, died at his home in Cincinnati Saturday, his death being the result of a paralytic stroke of a week ago. The deceased was born in Virginia and came here with his parents when a very young child.

He was employed in Hall's Plow Works for many years. He moved to Cincinnati some 15 years ago.

He leaves a widow and five children—Benjamin, an only son, residing in Boston.

The remains were brought to this city yesterday and interred in the Maysville Cemetery, being accompanied here by his five children and widow.

Kipperred Herring.

Try the fish nicely with a cloth. Then place in a frying pan of HOT butter or lard and fry just long enough to crisp. Try a can; you will find them most excellent.

TELEPHONE No. 43. G. W. GEISEL, OPPOSITE OPERA-HOUSE.

Every man of family in Maysville should own the house his family lives in. See John Duley and buy one if you do not own the one you occupy.

Mr. W. O. Outon of Limestone street, who has been down with pneumonia at his home in Limestone street for the past six weeks, has recovered sufficiently to appear on the streets yesterday.

Sunday night between 8 and 9 o'clock the residents of East Fourth street on the Fleming pike were aroused from their meditations by the screaming of two women, occupants of a buggy driven by a man. The driver was belaboring the horse with a whip, notwithstanding the poor animal was then going at a breakneck speed. Who they were or why the haste or outcry of the women is not known. Perhaps something will be heard of it later on.

DISPLAY OF FINE MILLINERY.

Mrs. M. Archdeacon will have her Spring and Summer Millinery Opening on Thursday, March 30th. She has secured the services of Mrs. Fannie Mikel of Chicago as trimmer.

The Sir Knights are urged to attend the convocation in full uniform, if possible.

A banquet will be served at the intermission of the afternoon and evening sessions.

The lucky ones were J. Linden Woods, Harry L. Walsh, Dr. S. R. Harvor, J. L. Daulton, James Childs, John B. Orr. J. Linden Woods was recommended as District Deputy Grand Patriarch.

MUST BE CORRECT

Because Three of Our Old-Timers Swear to It

When a statement is made in regard to incidents that transpired in this vicinity 60 or 70 years ago, it must be exact or else it will be questioned by Kinny McClannahan, Charley Frank and Alex Calhoun, who were then good sized boys and know the facts to a letter.

Last week THE LEDGER contained an item in regard to the band that floated down the Mississippi on Calhoun & Atkinson's flat boat and there was a discrepancy that did not accord with history as she is writ in the lexicon of the above trio.

To be strictly correct, the band was composed of the following—William Clark, Charles Rudy, Lewis Ort, John Mendall, George Wheeler, John Midghall, Frank Atkinson and Tom Connell. Thad Connell and Alexander Calhoun composed the string band.

Now, there you are, facts as are facts.

Champion Liniment For Rheumatism. Charles Drake, a Mail Carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the storekeeper here recommended this remedy, and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief, and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by all Druggists.

SPRING MILLINERY.

Miss Anna King will have her Spring Opening Thursday, and all the approved styles in Millinery will be shown.

REGARDING CIGAR BOXES.

Since the ruling of the Internal Revenue Department forbidding the use of dummy cigar boxes bearing an imprinted caution label for display purposes, cigar dealers have been worried as to whether or not they would be allowed to use empty cigar boxes that had been regularly stamped and branded. Saturday a notice from Washington City was received announcing that it is permissible to use emptied cigar boxes for show-window displays, providing that the stamp has been properly destroyed.

SOME people are so exceedingly modest that they shun the naked truth.

I'll bet a jewsharp to a stick of candy that Colonel SAM STAIRS howls at the Trusts in type bought from the Type Trust. Consistency, you know!

MR. N. O. NELSON, a St. Louis millionaire, says getting rich is a very bad habit. This will be consoling to those country Editors who strictly avoid the habit.

THE six hundred structural iron workers of Cincinnati threaten a strike on Saturday if the bosses don't give them more pay and less work. They will probably get the latter—and a good deal of it.

AT Marion, Ind., JENNIE ROOD, aged 40, is under arrest for osterlizing her hubby, JOHN K. ROOD, aged 78. She put the poison in his pan-cakes, though it is probable the cakes alone would have done the work.

THE LEDGER may not have as wide circulation as The Woman's Magazine; but when it comes to "quick returns" it can beat any contemporary to a standstill. A few days ago it reported the engagement of a young couple at Mayslick—twelve miles in the country;—and before the first city carrier had gotten ten blocks from the office, an irate young lady at the Mayslick end of the wire "denied the allegation and defied the allegator." Now is the time to advertise!

THE Louisville Post recently printed a thirty-year-old photograph of a prominent citizen, and had the whole town guessing who it was. The guesses took a wide range, about every distinguished resident coming in for mention—excepting the Honorable PAT SHARKEY.

THE citizens of Jefferson county have presented to Mr. JOHN P. KELLY a handsome gold badge, inscribed, "John P. Kelly, the Man That Freed the Turnpikes." The Man That Freed the Turnpikes in Mason county will probably get his badge from St. PETER.

AND now comes a College Professor in Chicago with the declaration that in 3,000,000 years man will be extinct and the earth will be inhabited by birds. It is hoped they will have more common sense than some of the "birds" who now fill Professorships in American Colleges.

AFTER being with it so long that the memory of the oldest inhabitant runneth not to the contrary, Mr. JOHN W. POWLING has severed connection with The Carlisle Mercury. If any one wants a pretty fair printer, who asks a living for a dear wife and pretty baby, Mr. POWLING can fill the bill.

THE "Supervising Architect" at Washington needn't be so awfully particular about Maysville's Public Building. It doesn't make much difference whether there are sixty-three or sixty-six or only sixty-four courses of brick in the front wall. The country folks out where it is located will never know the difference.

ECZEMA ON LITTLE GIRL

Sleepless Nights for Mother and Awful Suffering of Child.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Had Given up All Hope of Ever Making Any Cure.

Mrs. I. B. Jones, Addington, Ind. T., writes: "My little girl had been suffering for two years from eczema, and during that time I could not get a night's sleep, as her ailment was very severe. I had tried so many remedies and spent so much money, deriving no benefit, I had given up all hope of making any cure. As a last resort I was persuaded to try Cuticura, and to my great delight a marked change was manifested from the first application. I gave the child a bath with Cuticura Soap, using a soft piece of muslin cloth. This I did twice a day, each time following with Cuticura Ointment, and at the same time gave the Resolvent, according to directions. One box of Ointment and two bottles of the Resolvent, together with the Soap, effected a permanent cure. I submit this for publication, hoping it will assist other sufferers in curing themselves."

COMPLETE TREATMENT

Consisting of Cuticura Soap Ointment and Pills.

The first step in the treatment of chronic Eczema is to remove the scales and crusts and soften the skin, by warm baths with Cuticura Soap, dry carefully and apply Cuticura Ointment, lightly at first, and where advisable spread it on pieces of soft cloth and bind in place. Take the Resolvent Pills, or liquid, in medium doses. Do not use cold water in bathing, and avoid cold, raw winds.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 50c. (the form of Cuticura Ointment, 25c. per box of 50c. Ointment, 25c. Soap, 25c. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston, Sole Props. See "How to Cure Eczema."

Uncle Sam's Senate

Senatorial Society For the Suppression of Practical Americanism

Walter Wellman, in a Washington telegram to The Chicago Record-Herald, says:

How to deal with Castro, the jack-in-the-box dictator of Venezuela, who has bobbed up again, is a serious problem with the American Government and also with the Governments of France and Italy. It is a much more serious conundrum at Washington than it is at Paris and Rome, because the foreign Governments have a free hand to do as they please, while the Administration here is compelled to ask the permission of one or both Houses of Congress before it can do anything beyond putting up a bluff.

France and Italy, who are eager to protect the rights of their citizens in Venezuela, ruthlessly assailed by this free-booter dictator, have intimated that they would like the United States Government to represent them in administering some sort of discipline to the jack-in-the-box. But President Roosevelt is not likely to accept this responsibility, because he is much puzzled to know what to do to protect the interests of our own citizens, let alone taking up the cudgel for other Governments.

The President is greatly hampered by the restrictions seemingly placed upon him by the Congress during the recent session as well as the Constitution of the United States. For example, he cannot seize a Venezuelan Customhouse, even as Trustees of by agreement with the Venezuelan Government, if such an arrangement were possible without the assent of the Senate. To seize a Customhouse by force would be tantamount to making war, and the President may not make war without the authorization of Congress.

WE CANNOT TURN A WHEEL.

If Castro is smart enough to refuse arbitration and to refuse to do justice to the American interests involved it is difficult to see what action the Administration can take to bring him to terms. The President can send warships to Venezuelan waters, but what are they to do after they get there? To establish a blockade by force is to make war. To land marines to restore the asphalt company's property to its rightful owners, the American stockholders, is to make war.

To seize Venezuelan territory or property in reprisal is to make war. So if Castro has his nerve with him, if he understands the peculiarities of the American administrative system, if he simply stands pat and refuses to get scared when Mr. Roosevelt's warships arrive off his coast and parade up and down in all their formidable array of frowning guns and steam launches, loaded to the gunwales with sassy marines, he is master of the situation. The President may put up a bluff. If Castro calls it he wins.

President Roosevelt is still looked upon abroad as the policeman of this hemisphere. He may be seen walking up and down his beat swinging his big stick, but if Castro has not lost all his cunning in running amuck he must know that the policeman is nothing to be afraid of. He dare not make an arrest, nor use his club, nor seize a malefactor by the scruff of the neck, for fear that he will be called to account by the Senatorial society for the suppression of practical Americanism.

“No North—No South”

But This Sounds Almost Too Good to Be True

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

“In the latter part of April, at Louisville, there will occur a meeting of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Church, South, that will be epochal in its character.

“The meeting will be for the purpose of bringing together the two Churches which have been separated ever since the war, and which have had no official communication since the unhappy event, with one exception, namely in 1886.”

These remarks were made yesterday afternoon by the Rev. C. W. Blodgett, Pastor of the St. Paul Methodist Church, and who attended last Friday a banquet in Louisville at which formal recognition of the approaching meeting was taken.

PLAN BEING FORMULATED.

“The chief obstacle in the way of a consolidation of the two great branches of Methodism is the large number of colored people in the Northern Church, but a plan is now being formulated by Dr. Gancher of Baltimore, whereby the colored members of both Churches will be formed into a separate body, to which the other will extend aid in all ways possible, especially in educational ventures,” continued Dr. Blodgett.

“And the day is not far distant when these great bodies will be united into one organized whole.

MARKS NEW ERA.

“The banquet in Louisville was given by the various Epworth Leagues of the two Churches, and it marked a new era in the organizations, since the Church in Louisville has been prominent in the past in the troubles that have kept us apart.”

The greeting extended Dr. Blodgett, who is an ex-Union soldier, when he rose to respond to his toast, was a warm one, and it is said that the scene was dramatic when Dr. Blodgett shook the hand of Rev. Dr. Thomas of Owensboro, Ky., who represented the other side, and exclaimed: “This means that the Ohio no longer divides the two great Methodisms of the Republic.”

Those who were present were enthused by the scene.

DON'T BE SATISFIED.

Why Be Content With Relief From Backache When a Maysville Woman Shows You the Cure?

Don't be satisfied with relief. Brief freedom from backache. Reach the root of the trouble. Cure the cause, and backache disappears for good.

It can be done. Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures. Experiences of Maysville people prove this. Here's one Maysville case of it. Mrs. Lizzie Bridges, wife of Elmer Bridges, of 206 West Third street, Maysville, Ky., says: “In March, 1900, I gave a testimonial praising and recommending Doan's Kidney Pills and in it I told how I learned the great value of this remedy. I had been troubled with a bad back and weak kidneys from girlhood, and in my efforts to find a cure I tried every medicine I could find but without benefit until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. They proved just the remedy I needed, went right to the cause of the trouble and as a result brought relief that led me to testify in their favor. I have never been without Doan's Kidney Pills in the house since. Every spring I take a box whether symptoms of kidney trouble are apparent or not, and in this way keep the kidneys in good condition and guard against attacks of my old trouble.”

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

Robert H. Pollitt, the Second street liveryman, is minus a fine overcoat. Saturday some one took it either by mistake or with felonious intent, more likely the latter. It disappeared from a hook in the office during the busy hours of the day.

The gage marks 41.8 and falling.

The Queen City will look after the Pittsburgh trade tonight.

The Henry M. Stanley was the Pomeroy packet last night.

Another lot of mud will be left on the grade when the river falls.

As spring advances, business improves and the outlook for a season of prosperity with the packets is unusually good. All are doing well now.

The Government lighthouse tender Goldenrod, now on a Southern inspection trip, will travel in all about 1,900 miles on her journey on this round.

The towboat Clyde figured in a serious accident at Benwood, near Wheeling, W. Va., Sunday, and narrowly escaped destruction. She was upbound with empties when a steam pipe burst, and the steamer and tow of eight barges became unmanageable and swung helplessly broadside downstream toward the Baltimore and Ohio Bridge. The ferry boat went to the Clyde's assistance, and after a hard struggle the steamer and tow were gotten to the West Virginia shore, with one barge in a sinking condition.

With the Ohio river at an excellent coalboat stage and reports from up-river points of additional rain, indicating good shipping water for several days to come, the river coal shippers at headwaters are losing no time in getting out tows. Nearly 1,400,000 bushels of coal started South Sunday, 28 boats, 36 barges and 16 flats being locked through Davis Island Dam. With this shipment the total amount gotten out is over 5,000,000 bushels, and if some of the large towboats arrive in time to take advantage of the water a number of big tows will get away.

The run on the Union Savings Bank and Trust Company at Cincinnati ended at 12:35 p. m. Monday. At that hour all those who had applied had been paid off, and there was more cash in the Bank than when the run began.

A Chicago Alderman Owe His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 South Dearborn street, Chicago. "Two years ago, during a political campaign I caught cold after being overexerted, which irritated my throat, and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my sensations when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council. This remedy is for sale by all Druggists."

If Constipated, Do This.

This offer may not appear again. There is no catch about it. If Mull's Grape Tonic does not positively cure Constipation you are out nothing, as you may have the first bottle free. If it cures, which it will, tell others; that is all we ask. No remedy has ever before been known to cure Constipation permanently. Mull's Grape Tonic is not a physic. It is unlike anything you have ever used. It cures Constipation. If it did not this offer would ruin us. The process is gradual but sure. You know from your own experience that physics, like Pills, Salts, Castor Oil, Mineral Waters, Injections, etc., make you worse.
Where can Mull's Grape Tonic be had?
Your Druggist sells it. The 50c bottle contains nearly three times the 50c size, but if you will write today to Mull's Grape Tonic Co., 317 Third avenue, Rock Island, Ill., and give Druggist's name, you will receive the first bottle free with full instructions. This gives us a chance to prove to you of our expense that it is a wonderful remedy and places you under no obligation to invest a penny. Only tell your friends about it.

Printer in Five Hundred."
Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."
Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment —it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.
We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get out our presses.
No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.
